GLEICHEN WINS FROM STRATHMORE Play Good Football Match

Undoubtedly the best game of any kind ever played in Gleichen was the football match Good Friday afternoon between the Strathmore and Gleichen teams, despite the fact that the heaviest wind was blowing that has been felt here for a long time. The line of the teams was as follows:

Strathmore—Geo. McCann goal, F. B. Hume r.f.b., G. Charleton l.f.b., R.B. Salmon r.h.b., C. Morris c.h.b., E. W.W. Hughes l.h.b., R. Shaw o.r., Geo. Hill i.r., J. H. M. Martin c.f., A. McLean i.l., Capt. W. Downie o.l.

Gleichen—C. A. Rennie goal, H. Rendell r.f.b., J. T. M. Hughes l.f.b., C. Goodacre r.h.b., R. Hindle c.h.b., S. Adam l.h.b., Sam. Moss o.r., T. P. Fisher i.r., Capt. E. Wagstaff c.f., Geo. Moss i.l., W. Maisey o.l.

Both teams put up a good game and worked hard throughout, but the wind hindered them greatly, especially in the few attempts at combination play. Nevertheless, the spectators took a lively interest in every move and cheered on the players in a very hearty manner.

Geo. Grey of Queenstown proved a very efficient referee and there were practically no disputes over his decisions, which should be most satisfactory to that gentlemen.

In the first half no goals were scored and although the visitors had the wind in their favor the ball was kept pretty well in the vicinity of their goal.

In the second half after some hard playing the local boys managed to make the only score of the game, and if they were a little too joyful over the event the visitors will be kind enough to remember that it is about the first time Gleichen has won anything from Strathmore, but they will not promise not to do it again. After winning the goal the ball was kept pretty close around the visitors goal, but many a side kick kept it from entering.

On the whole it was a splendid game and the best of feeling existed between the players. The return match will be attended with much interest and it is hoped the teams will have many games this season.

Some Exclusive Unions

The farmers might well consider this pulled from a trades union paper:

To preach, marry people and collect the salary, fees and perquisites of the pulpit, you must belong to the Ministers' union, the clergy, and carry a license card.

To practice law you must belong to the Lawyers' union, the bar, and carry a paid up license card.

To practice medicine you must belong to the Doctors' union and carry a diploma card.

If you own stocks and bonds, can you go on the floor of the exchange and sell them? Not unless you belong to the Stock Gamblers' union, the Stock Exchange.

Do you see the farmers on the floor of the Produce Exchange selling their grain and cotton? Not much. They do not belong to the Produce Gamblers' union.

Do drovers sell their cattle and hogs on the floor of the Live Stock Exchange? The nearest they get to it is the office of Skinner, Birkem & Shark, live stock commission merchants, who are mem-

Gleichen Horses Win Eleven Prizes at Provincial Show

Eight Gleichen Raised Horses Compete Against Imported Stock—H. West and Clark Bros. Have Prize Winners.

The Provincial Live Stock Show held in Calgary is characterized as "The largest indoor show west of Toronto" and it is stated that there were more entries than at the Winnipeg show.

But best of all—for Gleichen—is the fact that Gleichen horses carried off eleven prizes and eight of these animals raised in this district competed against imported stock.—That's going some.

Here are the Gleichen prize winners:

TIGHT HORSES

Thoroughbred stallions 3 years and over—1st Charlson, H.R. West. Champion thoroughbred stallion—Silver medal, Charlson, H. R. West.

HEAVY HORSES

Clyde stallion, yearling—1st Lyndoch MacQueen, Duncan Clark, Crowfoot. Clyde stallion, 2 years—3rd Colonel MacQueen, James Clark, Crowfoot. 4th, McGuire of Crowfoot, Jno. Clark, Jr.

Mare, 3 years or over—3rd Bogdovie Queen, John Clark, Jr.

Two year old filley—2nd Hattie McClure, Jno. Clark, Jr. This mare was raised by Mr. Clark on his Crowfoot creek ranch and competed against a mare raised in Scotland that cost £100.

Two year old—3rd Main Spring, Duncan Clark.

Five year old—3rd Mount Clifton, Jas. Clark.

Canadian class—3rd Colonel MacQueen, and 4th Master MacQueen, both owned by Jas. Clark.

There was a good attendance of Gleichen horsemen at the show and everyone came back well satisfied and pronounce it a big show and a grand success from every point of view.

H. R. West and the Clark Bros. were the only men in the vicinity to make entries and they all brought back prizes. Mr. West won first in his two entries with one horse and Clark Bros. took up eleven, and got nine prizes and sold four horses.

Professor Black, President of the Manitoba Agricultural college, in an interview with a Herald representative said that he had never seen a show that was more popular with the people and that the people of Calgary and district deserved great credit for the way they had patronized it. It was wonderful he said.

"It is," said the professor, "without doubt the largest horse show ever held west of Toronto and there was a greater number of entries in the different competitions, in both the horse and cattle competitions than I have ever seen in any show."

He had seen here some of the finest animals he had ever seen any place. The most of them were superior to those he had seen in eastern Canada and especially the standard-bred stallions. These, he considered the best to be found west of the great lakes.

The saddle and driving horses were also very classy and the polo ponies had excelled anything he had ever seen any place. He had never seen so many entries in any one class before and this had made the judges work harder.

The ladies' riding and driving classes had also excelled anything he ever witnessed. He had never known of anybody having to judge so many animals in these classes.

One thing had struck him particularly was the courtesy and grace with which the exhibitors had accepted the decisions of the judges. "Anybody can win," said the professor, "but it takes a lady or gentleman to lose."

Another thing that had impressed him very favorably had been the excellence of the management. It was the best he had ever seen. The stock had come in on time and there had never been any hitch in any of the arrangements. He considered Mr. Richardson an excellent manager and nothing had been neglected. Great credit was due Mr. Richardson.

The facilities were much better than the majority of similar organizations had at their disposal for their first show.

"Without a doubt," the professor concluded, "the show will be a great thing for the horse breeding industry."

bers in good standing of the Live Stock Gamblers' union.

The "open shop" is a beautiful institution only when applied to plain and simple work.

About the only lawful thing you may do, and not belong to a union, is to work

The whipping post as a punishment for a crime against a young girl was brought into use one day last week at Watsburg, a saw mill town in the Crow's Nest Pass district. A young man named Anderson confessed to having attempted an assault on a little girl. The magistrate gave him the choice of a jail sentence or the lash. He chose the latter. He was stripped, commanded to place his hands high above his head! He leaned forward against a flagstaff and the magistrate applied the lash vigorously on his bare back. Every stroke brought blood and cries for mercy. Later Anderson left the city. A few such sentences as this should have a beneficial effect on men of such calibre as Anderson.

A very interesting meeting of the directors of the Agricultural Association was held Tuesday evening at The Call office when a lot of business was transacted. It transpired the 50 acres of land had been duly purchased and it was arranged to call a full meeting of all the members on May 15th to ratify the decision of the directors in the plan for buildings, fencing, etc. It was also determined to proceed at once with the survey of the land and race track and have it properly graded.

H. M. McKie and J. E. Kileup have entered into partnership in the real estate business and the new firm is to be known as McKie & Kileup. Both these young men are well known throughout this district and having joined forces it may be expected that they will be enabled to handle the real estate business in a most up-to-date manner. Success to Messrs. McKie & Kileup.

J. O. Doyle, the Calgary representative of Bradstreet's, paid his second visit to Gleichen Tuesday. He stated that the rapid growth of Gleichen has made it necessary for him to include this town in his list of regular stopping places, and that the amount of business transacted in Gleichen was quite remarkable.

F. J. Turner, formerly manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Gleichen, arrived Friday from Laidkan, Sask., and visited his numerous friends until Monday, who were most pleased to meet him. He has severed his connection with the bank and may go into business in Calgary.

John Clark, Sr., who left here two or three months ago for Scotland, has sent word to his sons that he is leaving Scotland on the 17th of this month with another big shipment of thoroughbred mares and stallions and expects to arrive at Gleichen about May 10th.

Gleichen hotels are daily crowded to the limit, which is a very good sign of the times. The proprietors of both hotels are figuring on building large additions.

Bought a Fine Percheron

N. R. Dextraze, the well known Rosebud creek rancher, last week purchased a handsome looking Percheron stallion named "Poete", No. 65613, which was imported from France last November by Messrs. Hamilton & Hawthorne, of Simcoe, Ont., from whom Mr. Dextraze purchased the animal. He is a beautiful dark gray color about four years of age, and was much admired upon his arrival in town. Mr. Dextraze has bought him solely for his own purposes and with his present good stock expects to breed some very high class horses. He deserves much credit for his enterprise and we hope his ambitions will be fully realized.

Once again Gleichen in open competition has proved her superiority. At the recent horse show in Calgary Mr. H. R. A. West's thoroughbred stallion Charles carried everything before him, securing the first prize and championship to this district. Gleichen may well be proud to own such a very enterprising and successful horse judge as a citizen. We believe Mr. West has been approached by a few owners of likely mares to allow his horse to stand in Gleichen during the coming season. Should he consent it will prove of great benefit to this vicinity. Charles was raised by Marcus Daly, the foremost American breeder of his time and traces back to the best of English stock, his half brother being this year's favorite for the English Derby. Mr. West purchased his horse from Mr. W. B. Campbell of Okotoks.

Nanaka is becoming quite a lively burg and Mayor Brown is pushing the town right along. Aldermen Hedges and Weaver are his able lieutenants and the former states the new settlers arriving there make the prospects very bright for the future of Nanaka.

The authorities have established a post office at Cluny, with Messrs. Ross & Taylor as postmasters.

Cluny is coming to the front.

It is sometimes difficult for some men to judge what is considered advertising by newspaper men. To simplify the matter it may be said to be the insertion in a newspaper of anything whereby the owner expects to realize a profit. For instance a newspaper may insert an item that a man has acquired an article or animal which will be of special benefit to himself or the community and yet no one gets any direct benefit; that is an item of general interest. On the other hand an item may be inserted that a man has an article or an animal which statement will prove a direct means of bringing that man a revenue from its publication; this is, therefore, an advertisement and it is legal to charge and collect for same. The point is that where a person orders an item inserted from which he is a gainer it is considered advertising and not an item of news.

It is very much to be regretted that a half dozen men spoiled all the enjoyment of the dance Monday evening and succeeded in finally breaking it up at an early hour. This is indeed a great pity and means that in future no public dances can be given unless a policeman is employed, and what self-respecting lady will attend a dance hall where a policeman is required to keep the men in place? The Call very much regrets to have to mention such facts, but we do it at the request of many who desire to see the dances continued and the rough element cut out. In the past many most pleasant and enjoyable public dances have been held, but the rowdy element has gradually been working in

W. PARK EVANS, - - - - - Publisher and Proprietor.

Gleichen, Alberta, April 15, 1909.

Now that a branch of the United Farmers' Union has been organized for the Gleichen district let every farmer join in making it a grand success. Much good can be accomplished by such an institution if properly conducted. So let us hope our farmers will show executive ability and unity to carry the new organization through. Its aims and objects are of a very high standard and if the members live up to them, they and the entire community will be the better therefore.

The Board of Trade had a very stormy meeting Saturday evening at which the secretary and treasurer resigned. The meeting has been adjourned until Friday evening, when the election to these offices will take place and other important business is to be transacted. Every business man in town should attend the meeting tomorrow night and see that the officers elected are the very best obtainable, for the best interest of the town demand it. In the past the Board has accomplished much good for Gleichen district and we cannot afford to let the organization drop at the present time, or any other time for that matter.

At the Provincial Live Stock exhibition held in Calgary last week Gleichen horses carried off eleven prizes, and eight of these prizes were won by horses raised in this district by the Clark Bros. in competition with imported horses. This is something Gleichen may well be proud of and the Clark Bros. and Mr. West cannot be too highly complimented on the magnificent manner in which they sustained the reputation of this district at the show, which is characterized as the largest and best ever held in the west, upwards of 570 entries being made. And furthermore, it is stated by competent judges that the horses would take prizes at exhibitions in any part of the world.

H. H. Honens, sales manager of the Canadian Pacific Irrigation Colonization Co. has returned from a tour of the northern central states.
He visited St. Paul, Chicago, Rock Island, Detroit, Denver, Omaha and other points and found all Americans exceptionally well posted on Southern Alberta.

Many that were interviewed stated that they were coming to this district and at the same time told of a long list of neighbors who were going to accompany them as soon as seeding operations were completed.

Mr. Honens was agreeably surprised upon arrival in Alberta to find spring work so far advanced. In no part of the territory through which he passed did he note seeding as far advanced as in southern

Cultivating Soil to Destroy Weeds

The following is published at the request of the chief inspector of weeds, Mr. Y. B. R. Henderson.

The time has arrived when the farmers are again cultivating the soil for the season's crop. In cultivating the soil it is well to handle it in such a way that the weeds will be kept under control. The majority of the noxious weeds in Alberta are one year plants, or annuals, and belong to the mustard family. The seeds of the mustard are of an oily nature and will live in the ground for a long period without losing their vitality, germinating when brought under the proper conditions. The only way to eradicate them is to get the seeds to germinate and kill the plants while they are young, before they mature their seed. Before these seeds will germinate they must be very close to the surface of the soil, not deeper than two inches, and the soil must be firmly packed around the seed. If there were many weeds in last year's crop, it will be found advisable to burn the stubble off in the spring. This will destroy many of the weeds that are on the surface of the ground, and will render the soil more easily cultivated. If the stubble is burned, care should be taken to prevent prairie fires by plowing around the field.
The soil should then be disked and harrowed. This will encourage the seeds near the surface of the ground to germinate, and by successive cultivations with the disk or harrow, they will be destroyed and other seeds brought under such conditions that they will germinate. If this practice of disking and harrowing is followed up to the first of June, a large number of weed seeds at the surface of the ground will have been destroyed. The land can then be plowed and packed if possible and an early maturing variety of barley sown. In northern Alberta it is safe to sow beardless barley as late as the middle of June.

When the crop is about four inches high and the roots are firmly established in the soil, it should be harrowed with a light lever harrow with sloping teeth. This will destroy the weed seeds that have started as well as encourage the growth of the crop. The harrowing should not be done when the ground is wet, as the dirt will stick to the harrows and have a tendency to destroy some of the grain. If there are only a few weeds left, they can be hand pulled, but if there is a large quantity, it will be advisable to cut the crop for green feed before the weeds reach maturity. Usually, however, it will be found that the barley will choke out any weeds that come up afterwards.

Where fall wheat is sown the method of disking and harrowing during the summer should be continued until it is time to plow for wheat.

The above method of cultivation only pertains to very badly infested fields. It will not be necessary to carry it out where there are only a few weeds present. However, it will always be found advisable to harrow the growing crop of grain when it is from four to ten inches high, as soon as the roots are firmly established in the soil. Where only a few weeds are present, they should be hand pulled. Never sow or feed to stock, any grain that contains weed seeds.

United Farmers' Union

Below are a few of the provisions of the by-laws of the United Farmers' Union, that will go to show the high standard set by the organization recently formed in Gleichen:

The members of the Association are expected to extend fraternal care to one another in sickness, misfortune or distress, and to their families in bereavement, but it is a cardinal principle that that won't work neither shall he eat.
Industrial habits are as important qualifications as any principles of benevolence and charity, we do not require the inducements to lightly bestow their substance upon the shiftless and improvident.

All members of this Association are expected to cultivate harmonious relations with every other farmer's association or organization.

Members shall favor each other in their business relations and they should never go to law over their differences until all other means of agreement and settlement are exhausted. In all such cases the Association recommends arbitration.

Party politics and religious discussions are prohibited. When a Union wishes to take political action the meeting should adjourn.

Due decorum must be observed in all meetings, and presiding officers are given ample power to enforce order. Casti-g's and Robb's Manuals are held as authorities as parliamentary rules and usages.

Every effort should be made to encourage young persons to take part in the exercises and all should regard the meetings as schools of progress and advancement. The members are faithfully enjoined to attend the meetings and to spare no pains to make them profitable and interesting.

Cooperation is the greatest means by which we are to overcome the evil effects of partial combinations and members are urged to avail themselves of every opportunity for profitable cooperation with each other, but we should never let this purpose breed a spirit of antagonism between legitimate local interests. Farming is a business, and farmers should not antagonize other legitimate and proper business interests.

Controlled marketing is the means in our hands for compelling equitable prices for our products and members should hold it their most sacred duty to strictly adhere to that principle and wage that their neighbors do the same even if not members. Adherence to this principle is a test of good membership, and all are expected to direct their best efforts thereto.

An ingenious countryman of George Washington has invented an extremely sensitive but also exceedingly uncomfortable, little instrument, which, by an arrangement of batteries, indicates just whether a person is telling the truth or not. From the brief accounts of the contrivance which have appeared, it is difficult to understand the exact principle on which the new terror of life sits, but it seems to show, by the flicker of a flame, the momentary struggle in the two parts of the brain when, for a second, the tongue hesitates to pervert the truth. That is all very well, no doubt, when the tongue does so hesitate, or hesitates from no other cause. Perfectly truthful human animals, driven on a rare occasion to commit a terribly logical inexactitude, would, in all probability, register their uncomfortable state of mind on the psychometer; but, on the other hand, there are, among those of whom David spoke hastily, quite a number who habitually tell lies, and there would be no hesitation in their brain whatever, unless for a change, they decided to speak the truth. Even truthful folk may hesitate in answering a question. On the whole, it looks as if, for purposes of justice, this latest product of inventive ingenuity will have about the same value as the old ordeal by fire.—Vancouver

No other so-called High Grade Tea is half so satisfying as Ridgways—over seventy years reputation for quality and flavor.

Drink one cup. Test it carefully.
You'll agree that there is no tea at any price so good as Ridgways—so rich in taste—so satisfactory.

The quality of Ridgways Tea has stood the test of time since 1830. There is no other tea so "just as good" as Ridg-ways.

No other tea is so rich in the cup—so delicious as Ridgways, with over seventy years reputation for quality and flavor.

Ridgways supplied Her Majesty, the late Queen Victoria, with their celebrated M.B. brand of tea for more than forty years.

PROF. THOS. HAW
Recommends a Conditioner and Tonic

Hackney Stock Tonic and Condition Powder is scientifically prepared from Roots, Bark, Seeds and Herbs, which animals were able to secure in their wild state, but which you must supply them now. This scientific food gives your stock a chance to do better. You only put a tablespoonful of these "Tonics" in the regular feed; it sharpens the appetite, purifies the blood, aids digestion, strengthens the kidneys and keeps the animal healthy and growing. These animals increase 15 to 25 percent over the old method of feeding. We guarantee you extra profits. It kills worms and feeds and quickly expels worms.

LIVERY MEN USE IT

The Hackney Stock Food Co., Ltd., Winnipeg, Man.

Gentlemen,
I have much pleasure in recommending your Stock Tonic to all liverymen and horse dealers. We have found it a valuable article, particularly in cases where horses have been suffering from distemper or have been run down from overwork. I would not be without it in our stable.

TOWN AND DISTRICT

Now is the time to place your order for Formaline for treating grain. 50c per lb. at Yates' Drug Store.

Messrs. Ross & Taylor are making extensive improvements to their general store business at Cluny.

Arthur Daw has purchased a couple of lots on Sixth avenue and has already started the erection of a dwelling house.

D. Gillespie is contemplating adding a large addition to the Gleichen Hotel and making many other improvements to his premises.

Easter Sunday evening St. Andrew's was prettily decorated with flowers and ferns kindly lent by the People's Cafe. Miss Larkin sang a solo effectually which was much appreciated by the congregation.

In connection with the annual meeting of the St. Andrew's Woman's Auxiliary a meeting for women will be held in the church on Thursday, April 22nd, 3 p.m. The Dean of Calgary, Dr. Paget, and Mrs. Geddes of Calgary will address the meeting.

Last week H. M. McKie, the real estate man, turned over a farm property near town twice within twenty-four hours at a difference in price of $8 per acre between the first and second deal. This gives some idea of the increase in land values in this district.

For the convenience of their clients in and surrounding Gleichen, Messrs. Short Ross & Selwood, barristers, of Calgary, have opened a branch of their law office at Gleichen, where one member of their firm can be consulted on Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning of each week.

The Crown Lumber Company recently purchased the Gleichen Lumber Company's interests and D. L. Doran has arrived from Winnipeg to take charge for the new company. The company has already purchased several lots on Fifth avenue and are now laying out new yards and building an office and sheds.

Some Gleichen farmers are feeling quite indignant over an order being sent here for chicken feed. A reporter heard another farmer ask John C. Buckley, who won the Farm Crops trophy, if he had any chicken feed for sale, and Mr. Buckley proved conclusively that he still has still considerable Irish left in his make up.

A well attended meeting of the Rangers Football club was held in the Bank reading room Saturday evening, with Mr. Sam Oliver in the chair. Upon a ballot being taken Geo. Moss was easily elected captain, a position he is well qualified to fill. R. Hindle was elected secretary-treasurer and a low entrance fee was settled upon. The club starts off in good shape and believe they have a combination that will be strong enough to meet any of the local teams.

The Gleichen School Boys Football club went up to Calgary last Friday afternoon and played a return match with the West Calgary school boys Saturday morning. The day was very windy and the game was rather poor on that account. Only once did the ball pass between the posts and then it is claimed the wind was responsible. However, it is said the game was called a draw.

Messrs. N. A. Bray and Endor Brosseau are the new proprietors of the Palace Hotel, having already taken charge and commenced extensive improvements to the hotel. Both of these men hail from Crookston, Minn., and Mr. Bray arrived from there on Sunday with his wife to make their future home in Gleichen. Both of these gentlemen are experienced hotel men and state that it is their intention to build a large addition to the Palace at once from the main building west to the fire hall and will make many other improvements for the comfort and convenience of their guests. Mr. Bray previous to coming here has taken a lively interest in politics in Minnesota and both men will prove good citizens for Gleichen and materially help in the upbuilding of the town. Success to Messrs. Bray & Brosseau.

Good Play of a Golf Enthusiast.

"The Wilkie shot is what we call a special stroke in the game of golf," said a New Orleans man. "This stroke is so called all over the south and was given its name because it was made by a man named Wilkie, a member of the New Orleans Golf club."

"It was one of the prettiest plays I ever saw and was made during a match. Wilkie drove off from the ninth hole, and his ball landed in a small creek, which was one of the hazards in the course. The ball was lighter than the water and floated. To take it out and begin play over again meant the loss of two strokes and the hole, so Wilkie waded into the water, which was about two feet deep, and played the ball from there. He made a pretty stroke and was on the green, making it in two. He holed out in three, which is bogey for that hole. It was a cold day, and that water was not pleasant, but the act gained Wilkie lasting fame, and his stroke will always with us be called a Wilkie shot."

The Girl of the Netherlands.

The Dutch girl does not enjoy anything like the amount of freedom granted to her English or American sister. She is a very carefully chaperoned young person, and when she goes to the theater it is with her elders, not merely with a friend or two of her own age. At the dances she attends, songs, recitations and music form a part of the regular programme, and the chaperons sit at tables socially enjoying their coffee or other refreshments, while the young folk glide over the waxed floor to the strains of the latest waltz. Dutch maidens have to make the best of their opportunities of amusement, for when it pleases their parents to seek the quiet of home they must meekly accompany them. In their country the idea of a girl being unchaperoned at a dance is not to be thought of—at any rate, not yet.—Exchange.

Whistler Before Whistler.

Mortimer Menpes told the following story of Whistler, who was to deliver an address one day to the Society of British Artists: "The master at length entered, faultlessly dressed, walking with a swinging, jaunty step, evidently quite delighted with himself and the world in general. He passed down the gallery ignoring the assembled members, and walked up to his own picture. And there he stayed for quite fifteen minutes, regarding it with a satisfied expression, stepping now backward, now forward, cutting his head and dusting the surface of the glass with a silk pocket handkerchief. We watched him open mouthed. Suddenly he turned round, beamed upon us and uttered but two words—'Dravo, Jiminy!'—then took my arm and hurried me out of the gallery, talking volubly the while."

A Battle of Languages.

Three or four languages strove for mastery in ancient Gaul, which is now France. German was spoken by the 12,000 Frank invaders. Popular Latin was spoken by 6,000,000 Gallo-Romans. Literary Latin was the language of the church and of literature. Low Latin was afterward the language of the administration. German was the first to succumb. In four centuries it ceased to be understood by the soldiers, and in seventy years more it had become an object of ridicule. But it survives in more than 100 words, expressing the things of government, law and war, and thus forms no insignificant part of the French language.

Charity.

Every good act is charity. Giving water to the thirsty is charity. Removing stones and thorns from the road is charity. Exhorting your fellowmen to virtuous deeds is charity. Smiling in your brother's face is charity. Putting a wanderer in the right path is charity. A man's true wealth is the good he does in this world. When he dies mortals will ask what property has he left behind him, but angels will inquire, "What good deeds hast thou sent before thee?"—Mohammed.

Broad Enough.

A large and stout woman called on a friend and while waiting for her was stared at so intently by the friend's little children that she asked one of them: "What are you staring at, little girl?" "Why, you see, mamma said you were so narrow in your views, and I was wondering what view she got."

Not to Be Blamed.

He—A self made man is common enough, but we never hear of a self made woman. She—Considering the kind of article the men who are in the self making business turn out, you can hardly blame the women for not taking it up.

The Usual Way.

Nodd—Awfully sorry to hear your house burned down. Did you save anything? Todd—Oh, yes! After some very lively work we succeeded in getting out all the things we didn't want.

An Improvement.

"I see the agent has sold yez a carpet sweeper, Mrs. Maginnis. Is it as good as the old fashioned broom?" "It is an' better, Mrs. Mulduckie. I can knock Maginnis twice as far wild it."

The General's Part.

"Say, Jimmie, how many men d'yer 'spose he's killed?" "Aw, g'wan! Don't yer see he's a general. Generals don't do no killin'. Dey jest bosses de job."

Never make friends with the devil, a monkey or a boy. No man knows what they will do next.—Rudyard Kipling.

LAND SEEKERS

are coming in very fast and the best land will soon be picked up.

A circumstance happened in a school the other day, which nearly proved fatal. Two parents, one a trustee, accompanied by a parson, paid a visit to the school. The teacher, a lady who more than a dozen years ago passed her "sweet sixteen" period, appeared a little agitated at the sudden visit. The school matron, after showing the visitors to seats, proceeded on teaching the tablet lesson to a small class. Finally she came to the word "husband," which some of the pupils could spell, but could not pronounce, much to the discomfort of the teacher. To assist she asked: "Now, what would I have if I got married?" The answer came so suddenly that she squatted on a chair, the trustee leaped to her side, ordered the window raised and a glass of water.
